A bitch in season may not be entered in an obedience trial. Entry fees will be refunded for a bitch in season provided a veterinarian's certificate to this effect is presented to the show/trial secretary prior to the start of the first trial.

Rally Obedience

Rally Obedience is a form of dog obedience with a twist - a total focus on fun and excitement for the dog, handler and spectator.

Dog and handler teams follow a set course, performing the exercise indicated by 10-20 consecutive signs. Signs are numbered to indicate the course the handler and dog take during the performance.

There is a lot of variety with each rally course. And rally is different than Obedience in that handlers may talk to their dogs, praise them, and give them needed verbal commands.

Handlers can even use hand signals, point and in Novice and Advanced, clap and snap their fingers at anytime and as often as the handler needs. And it's not only allowed, but encouraged - making it a really fun sport!

THREE LEVELS OF RALLY OBEDIENCE

The first level – Rally Novice (RN) – is performed on lead.

At this level there are 31 different exercises from which the judge will select 10-15 for the test. Each exercise is outlined on a sign in graphic and words, and can include various combinations of turns, heeling, sits, downs, fronts and finishes. Points are deducted for tight lead, lack of control, incorrectly performing a station, lack of teamwork and handler error. The use of loud or harsh commands and intimidating signals by the handler are also deducted from your points.

The next two levels, Rally Advanced (RA) and Rally Excellent (RE) are performed off lead and include jumps.

Scoring for all levels is based on a maximum of 100 points with a minimum passing score of 70. Rally Obedience is timed and any tied scores are based on the time taken to run the course. You need three qualifying scores earned under at least two different judges

For further class information for obedience/rally trials, please refer to the obedience/rally trial rules/regulations or contact the CKC Obedience/Rally NL Representative.
