*Thanks so much to our landowners, the Burnstadt and Zeniuk families, who have so generously allowed us to use their land for our trial
Please respect their property & treat it as you would your own*

Best of luck to all dogs & handlers - thanks for joining us!

The Benn Memorial Trophy

We will be presenting the Benn Memorial Trophy to the Amateur high point dog & handler in our two all-age stakes

This trophy commemorates Gord & Marlene Benn, two of the longest serving & founding members of the Wild Rose Retriever Club. Enthusiastic sportsmen, respected Amateurs & students of the game they competed in field trials for many years with their beloved dogs, Clem, Code, Reba, Herbie, George & Emmy.

Generously donated by the Benn's daughters, Lesley & Krista, the trophy depicts a handler, bumpers in hand, sending his dog on a retrieve. Originally given to Gord for judging the 2007 National Open at Iron Bridge, it has been re-purposed as a memorial of the couples dedication to the sport we all love so much. Gun's Up!!!
