The Myshawns - Ambassador Award.

Donated by Margaret Stewartson, Saskatchewan, Myshawns Wheatens.

"In Loving Memory of my best friend and companion..."

"Shawnie introduced me to the world of purebred dogs, the obedience ring, the show ring and the agility ring. Shawnie's life was in service to his community. He was the little guy with the big heart. He was a true ambassador for the breed. His memory will be lasting as my kennel (Myshawns) is named for Shawnie".

The Criteria:

1. The Wheaten must be CKC registered-- this means dogs from other countries can compete for this Award if they are CKC registered.
2. There must be at least 3 titles achieved from different areas of competition (for example: conformation, obedience, pet therapy, etc).
3. The titles will be evaluated as to the difficulty in obtaining these titles (for example: CDX is more difficult than a CD).
4. The dog must be or has been heavily involved in community activities and not just have received a certain number of titles (pet therapy, etc would be heavily weighted).
5. A committee must receive copies of titles and resume by the closing date of the specialty. The committee includes Margaret Stewartson, Susan Perry (1st recipient of the award) and possibly Catherine Maxim.

A plaque will be awarded along with an appropriate gift.
