COURSES & BIRDS: The test will be run on a single course. Depending on course conditions, the Field Test Committee may adjust the course, including the addition of a bird field, to suit. All dogs with bird work will be shot over with blank cartridges on game contact. Released birds will be quail, chukar, pheasant and/or pigeons. Any dog encountering native game birds on the course must point, a shot must be fired and will be judged according to their test level. Dogs will be run individually for FDJ and FD tests and braced for FDA & FDX. All tests are walking tests (foot-handled) only.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Best Western Plus Mission City Lodge 32281 Lougheed Hwy, Mission, BC (604) 820-5500 or book.bestwestern.com They have “pet friendly” rooms and their fee for pets is +$15 per night.

Entries close at 7:00 pm Monday, April 11, 2016 and the draw will be held immediately after the close at 10474 Resthaven Dr., Sidney, BC V8L 3H7

CANADIAN-RESIDENT ENTRANTS THAT ARE NOT CKC MEMBERS: Effective January 1, 2011, the Canadian Kennel Club has implemented an annual non-CKC-member participation fee. Canadian-resident owners who are not members of the CKC must pay this annual participation fee or join the CKC. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of awards and titles. For co-owned dogs, one of the owners must supply a CKC membership number or pay the fee/join CKC. The above applies only to Canadian residents; American-owned dogs are exempt. The test secretary will have some of the forms available at the test; it is the entrants' responsibility to submit the form and fee to CKC.

BORDER CROSSING: A rabies certificate is required to bring a dog into Canada and the USA. Government regulations require a valid Rabies Certificate dated at least 30 days prior to entry into Canada. Please note that border crossings now involve more thorough inspection of vehicles, dogs and papers. Proof of citizenship is required for entry into Canada and return to the USA. Please carry a Passport, naturalization papers, etc. as proof of citizenship. You can borrow a starter pistol if you decide not to bring one across the border.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

- The BCABPC wishes to remind all participants and spectators that there will be no exercising or training of any dogs on the grounds before, during or after the trial without the permission of the Field Test Chairman or Field Test Secretary.
- The BCABPC reserves the right to limit entries to the available daylight hours and, if necessary, to rearrange the running order.
- Day of test entries will be accepted if the schedule allows. Such entries must be presented to the Test Secretary no later than 1 hour before the scheduled start time for that test along with an additional fee of $20.00.
- The duty of having a dog ready in place when required for judging rests solely with its handler or owner. If a dog is not present at the place where it is to start within 5 minutes after it is called for by the judges to run, it must be disqualified. The judges are responsible for keeping the time.
- No dog shall be picked up during a test except with permission from the judge.
- All participants must be familiar with the CKC Rules and also the rules and provisions of this Premium List. CKC 2014 Field Dog Test Rulebooks are available from the CKC or online at the CKC website for CKC members.
- Bitches in season may run at the end of the last test level scheduled for the last day.
- Collaring is permitted only as allowed for in the CKC Field Dog Test rulebook.

CKC, Chapter 16: It shall be the duty and obligation of the test-giving club to see that a judge is not subject to indignities. The Field Test Committee Chair shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of this regulation, and the Discipline Committee shall have the authority to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this has occurred.

LIABILITY: All entries for this Field Test are accepted on condition that the BCABPC, its officials and members, land and horse owners, are released from all liabilities for loss, damage or injury sustained by dog, horse or person in conjunction with, or during the running of, this Field Dog Test. All minors shall be under the direct care and supervision of the parent or guardian.
