CONFORMATION JUDGE

Roger Tebbutt
Caredig Irish Wolfhounds
Anglesey, North Wales

Roger is a busy farmer running a mixed farm in a beautiful part of Anglesey, an island off the coast of Wales, where he lives with his wife Debbie and the Caredig wolfhounds.

Here he introduces himself -

“I have lived with Irish Wolfhounds for forty years. Debbie and I have had some notable successes in the show ring, including major hound group wins and Best of Breed at Crufts. To have won the Graham Shield three times for Best in Show at the Irish Wolfhound Club Championship Show (UK) is particularly thrilling.

We have bred and owned several influential stud dogs; it is wonderful to have owned and exhibited UK champion hounds of the calibre of, among others, Yankeedoodle, Jupiter and Galileo, and to see the extent to which their bloodlines have spread through their progeny.

I love to watch fit, agile hounds hunting in rough country, and we are fortunate that the farm is a good environment to raise and exercise our hounds. I am constantly aware of the history and purpose of our breed, and keep in mind Captain Graham's vision of the hound when I am judging. In addition to my UK appointments, I have judged wolfhound specialties in several European countries and in North America; I also had the pleasure of judging our second breed, Bassets Fauve de Bretagne, at Crufts 2010.

I have a huge affection for BC, so I am really looking forward to meeting you and your hounds in Chilliwack in September”

I am an Irish Wolfhound addict. Their intelligence, their strength as well as their companionship, loyalty and devotion have me hopelessly hooked. I can't really imagine ever being without one - preferably two. They are magnificent creatures capable of running down and killing prey or laying on the floor to be a baby jungle gym if is what makes their family happy.

We currently live with 12 hounds ranging in age from 8.5 years down to 3 weeks. We bought our first wolfhound from Sam Ewing (Eagle) some 22 years ago. It was a unique education to be able to stand in a paddock full of teenage wolfhounds or puppies, racing around while Sam quizzed you on what you liked about that one. I was also fortunate enough to be mentored by Jacky Karpinski (Karn Irish Wolfhounds). She was an amazing friend to us and an amazing ambassador for the breed. Jacky was always on the lookout for the extraordinary hound, regardless of who bred it. She also taught me the value of the "useful" hound. That hound that was not necessarily the big winner or the one that takes your breath away but that hound that could contribute what was needed for your next generation.

Through the generosity of other long time breeders and mixture of luck, perseverance and hard work, we have been honored to live with, breed and co-own some extraordinary hounds. All were owner handled and shown sparingly. Over the years our hounds have won Specialties, won the breed at Westminster, won the breed at the Eukanuba Invitational, have been top 5 coursing hounds, therapy dogs, and one special hound that appeared in the Nutcracker ballet in Lockport, NY for several seasons. All of them have been cherished friends and family members.

Over the years we have strived to produce athletic, hunting hounds that could still hunt and protect the family, if need be. Chasing the ever elusive, perfect, rough-coated greyhound-like hound, that is fit and fast enough to catch the wolf. That hound that is athletic and strong enough in mind and body to kill its prey and survive the encounter with little injury to itself. Thank you all for inviting me to go over your babies and adults.

What a privilege and opportunity for me to be able to go over your youngsters.

Andover, Hants, UK

I have owned Irish Wolfhounds since 1970 when I purchased my first hound 'Buckhurst Theresa' when I was 16. She was still by my side 11 ½ years later. My father took pity on me and gave the final twenty guineas to buy her, as despite saving all I could for three years and working in a kennels and a grooming parlour in school holidays I was still unable to reach the £63 cost on my own! The young man who worked for my father at that time while he waited to go to University knew something about dog shows, which introduced me to the concept. I later became Mrs Thornton, we co owned the "Mochras" affix.

Number of hounds? Between two and eight wolfhounds at any one time, three at the moment. I have always fitted wolfhounds around my working life, probably to the detriment of both "careers". There have been many occasions with the dogs when I had to pass up great opportunities because of lack of time for a new puppy or a litter, but this created some new friendships and sent a number of champions into the world through telling others where these prospects were.

Since becoming independent from my parents many years ago (their very convenient "retirement project" of boarding kennels with kennelmaids took a while to break away from) my family of hounds has always shared their life with me. There are always wolfhounds on the sofas and I ensure they aren't left alone for long as my partner Bruce Little loves the dogs as much as I do. Whenever lure coursing meetings are available we support them and we are fortunate to live on the edge of 7,000 acres of woodland full of interesting walks, the dogs do keep their "eye in" on deer and foxes which of course we don't hunt ( its illegal in the UK these days).

Pretty well all of my hounds have enjoyed outings to dog shows and to have bred a champion in my first litter was extremely pleasing. I have supported health initiatives in the breed, for instance the heart testing scheme has had all my hounds within it since its inception over 25 years ago. I have tried to work with families which have the better emphasis on longevity (as long as it runs alongside steady character) and know just how hard it is to breed type, character and soundness as a "package". This breed is full of surprises and when an older breeder says "wolfhounds aren't easy" you can believe them.

I started judging in the late 70s and have been grateful for the opportunity to see many wonderful wolfhounds at different stages of their careers and in many different countries. Many years ago one of my first overseas appointments was for Puget Sound IWC, it is my very great pleasure to return to this part of the world. I wonder if any descendants of the dogs I liked then will be around?

I fell in love. It was 1986, she had big brown eyes and a huge heart, her name was Meaghen. She was my first Irish Wolfhound and we spent ten happy years together. When she left, I thought I would never own another, but that could not happen. Once this breed was in my life, they were here to stay.

I breed occasionally , which leads to conformation showing, specialties preferred. A wonderful time to see hundreds of hounds and catch up with old friends. Lure coursing and straight racing is my joy. We have also dabbled in Rally "O" for the annual "Great Canadian Triathlon".

The hounds and I have visited seniors as "Therapy dogs" and educated children participating in "Bite Prevention" seminars. Most of my days are spent exercising, feeding and grooming hounds.

It has been a wonderful experience learning about this breed, and everyday there is more to learn.

Thank you for inviting me to judge sweeps at the 2013 National.

I am really looking forward to the opportunity of seeing all the delightful puppies.
